

Adult Program Trip

Black History Month, Greensboro, NC

Thursday February 28, 2019

Do you have an interest in NC history or would like to learn more about historical events that took place in NC regarding the underground railroad and civil rights? Please join us as we celebrate Black History Month. We will be leaving from the Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 6:30am.

We will travel to Greensboro, North Carolina to visit several historically significant sites. The day will begin with a stop at the Guilford County Courthouse National Military Park, where the Battle of Guilford Court House was fought on March 15, 1781. A park ranger will provide the group with information on the park as well as answer questions followed by a short film about the national park. You will have time to enjoy the park at your leisure and partake in several activities on your own. Our next stop will be at the Guilford College Woods Underground Railroad where we will have a guided tour and learn about Underground Railroad activities which took place locally. Although the Underground Railroad network was secretive and no blueprint for it survives, it is generally agreed that a southern terminus was centered around the New Garden community in Guilford County, NC. After having lunch, on your own, we will visit the International Civil Rights Center and Museum. We will have a full guided tour of the facilities that are devoted to the international struggle for human and civil rights. The exhibit space is located at the historic 1929 F.W. Woolworth building in Greensboro.

The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 6:45 p.m. Feel free to bring snacks and drinks to eat as we will only have short rest stops along the way.
